Volunteer Interpreter Application Guidelines for Peace Boat's 106th Global Voyage and Zenith’s 3rd Global Voyage

■ Minimum Requirements

- Individuals with the ability to act as volunteer interpreters in the following language pairs: Japanese-English; Japanese-Spanish; Japanese-Korean; Japanese-Chinese; Korean-English; and Chinese-English. They must be able to act as a bridge of communication and be of sound health. We also accept applications from people who can interpret between Japanese and two other languages (for example, Japanese, Spanish and English, or Japanese, Chinese and English, etc.).

- While it is not compulsory to have taken the language proficiency tests listed below, the following language levels are a guide to the average proficiency of previous successful applicants:
  - English: TOEFL(PBT/ITP) 600, (CBT) 250, (iBT) 100 and above, TOEIC 900 and above.

- You must be available for the entire duration of either voyage, which for the 106th Voyage is December 13\(^{th}\), 2020–March 31\(^{st}\), 2021; and for Zenith 3rd Voyage is December 17\(^{th}\), 2020–April 2\(^{nd}\), 2021. You must also be able to participate in the orientation which is scheduled to begin around one week prior to the departure of the voyage. However, in some cases, those applying to be a Spanish volunteer interpreter may be permitted to join the voyage for just the Spanish-speaking segment. Please discuss this with us in advance.

- You must be at least 20 years of age. However, if you are turning 20 during the voyage and interested in applying, please contact us as soon as possible as special conditions will apply.

- You should have a strong interest in and background knowledge of the following topics: North-South issues, regional conflicts, poverty, racism and other forms of discrimination, indigenous peoples, diversity, civil society, sustainable development and international bodies, the environment, nuclear and other energy issues, etc.

- Proficiency in languages other than Japanese, English and Chinese especially languages used in countries visited (for example, French, etc.) will be looked upon favorably.

- While not necessary, experience in interpreting or having studied interpreting previously will be viewed favorably.

■ Conditions

- Peace Boat will notify you as to which voyage you will be taking part in by the end of the selection process. (If you have a strong preference for a particular voyage, please let us know in your personal data form.)
  * Korean-language applicants can only apply to the Zenith 3rd Voyage.

- While volunteer interpreters are not paid, you will be exempt from the voyage fees (valued from ¥1.29 million port charges and tips).

- Peace Boat will pay for the cost of any programs in port that you are asked to attend as an interpreter.
Peace Boat will pay visa fees. However, in certain cases you may be asked to cover part of the cost. It is your own responsibility to apply for and obtain all visas required.

For some passport holders, it may take a significant period of time to obtain all visas required to participate in a voyage. If you have any concerns about this, please contact us at your earliest convenience and do not wait until the application deadline.

How to Apply

Please submit the following documents, using the contact details listed below. We will confirm receipt of your application within one week of receiving it.

Required Documents

1. Personal Data Form (at the bottom of this document) either in Japanese or English.
2. Resume in all languages for which you are applying.
3. An essay outlining “Why I would like to join a Peace Boat voyage” (approximately one A4 page in length) in all languages for which you are applying. The content should be the same in each language.

How and Where to Submit

You may submit your application either by post or email.

- If submitting by email, please write “Volunteer Interpreter Application for the 106th / Zenith’s 3rd Peace Boat Voyages (languages applying for ex. Japanese-English)” in the subject line, and attach all required documents in one of the following formats: PDF (.pdf) / Microsoft Word (.doc)
